New Haven, Conn., Oct. 30.—Contrary to the general order of things Monday was a busy day for the Yale today in the struggle among the east-Monday was a busy day for the Yale football men, the coaches not deeming it advisable to let up in the work of the men. Yale is manifestly weak at the ends, and ten candidates for the wing positions were tried out this afternoon, including Bomeisler and Galauer, who are expected to fill those position in the big games.

For an hour the end men were sent down under punts, having a big backfield to contend with. In this practice Scally and Tomilinson collided head-on and were rendered unconscious for a few minutes. They were taken from the field, each with a bad cut in the forehead. They will probably be out in a day or two.

Captain Howe entered into the practice today for the first time since the Virginia game, and seemed in good condition. He ran the second eleven in a scrimmage against the 'varsity, and did the pnting. A majority of the plays in the scrimmage were directed against the 'varsity line, but no attempts were made to score. The third cleven played against the first and scored 12 points in 15 minutes.

Eleven This Afternoon.

A football game for this afternoon between the Norwich Free Academy eleven and Manager Bendett's independents has been arranged for and will give the Academy a fine final tryout before their Bulkeley game at New London on Saturday. Because some of Manager Bendett's regulars cannot play this afternoon, he will have the vacant places filled up by some of the men from the Cedars of New London—Flaherty, Reed and Filipino filling in.

The game will be played on the Hespital grounds with the following lineup for the Independents, which will probably give them the advantage of weight over the Academy: Lobert c. Colligan and Filipino guards, Heath and Reed, tackles, McIntyre and Gadle weight over the Academy: Lobert c. Short Covering.

New York, Oct. 30 .- Stock market operators were bearish today, but stocks were fairly strong. Wall street had not recovered from the effect of the United States Steel dissolution suit, and the discussion in court of the American Tobacco reorganization plan added to its nervousness. That stocks advanced despite these conditions was due chiefly to short covering. Short selling is believed to have played a larger part in Friday's severe slump than was apparent at the time and operators today found the market in an oversold condition.
